
Refund/Cancellation Policy

Further explanation:

We understand that your board preparation process is a busy time. However, it is your responsibility as the customer to cancel your membership in advance. At present time, your subscription will auto-renew every month to the exact minute unless cancelled in advanced. What this means is that if you purchased on September 20th at 11:15 am, then your subscription will auto-renew at 11:15 am on October 20th. You may reach us at SarahMichelleNP@gmail.com at anytime with concerns or issues.

With all of this being said, Sarah Michelle NP Reviews would like for you to know that all sales are final and refunds will not be permitted if you forget to cancel your subscription. Please note that you do have the ability to cancel your subscription whenever you choose. You will still have access to your content after you cancel, so please do not worry about that.

Happy studying in the future!
